HAIL WITH JOY EDDY CONQUEST

Washington Christian Scientists Regard Close of Suit as Triumph.

Edward E. Norwood Characterizes Legal Action as a "Farce."

Washington Christian Scientists are expressing much satisfaction in a quiet way over the outcome of the famous Eddy suit, just ended at Conçord, N. H., which they assert was a victory for their cause, as well as abstract justice. Edward E. Norwood, the "committee on publication" for Washington, was seen by a Times reporter this morning, and expressed himself as highly gratified at the "victory for truth," as he

"Why, the whole thing was the most miserable farce," he said. "After months of boasting, the so-called 'next friends' and their counsel are not able to produce a scintilla of evidence in favor of their allegations, but they have been made without the slightest foundation

Plaintiffs Are Known.

"The real plaintiffs in the case 'do not The real plainting in the case do not yet appear,' but they are well known. A few days ago, in the course of the hearing, the three masters, appointed by the court to determine Mfs. Eddy's business capacity, visited her at her the course of the hearing, the three masters, appointed by the court to determine Mfs. Eddy's were gone—my spectacles. I made a business capacity, visited her at her home, and found her to be not only competent, but exceedingly alert and quite a match for the gentlemen who

"And the result of this interview has established beyond any doubt the fact that Mrs. Eddy is not only physically strong for one of her years, but one of the most alert women of her age who live at this period. "Ever since the filing of the bill, the 'next friends,' through their counsel, have made repeated statements to the public press as to what they expected to prove and the evidence they claimed

Evidence Not Produced.

They were allowed the greatest latitude and indulgence by the court to prove their case, yet each succeeding day but showed their inability to produce such evidence. They were finally forced, by their own inaction to dis-miss the proceedings.

"This act, of course, was a complete vindication of Mrs. Eddy, and such a disposition must have the greatest weight among all fair-minded people.

"One of the leading allenists of America, Dr. Allan McLane Hamilton, who had formerly testified against Christian Science, was called by Mrs. Eddy's counsel to interview her. Let me quote from his statement:

Throughout the entire conversation she showed no evidence whatever of any mental disease. She did not manifest any delusions, which she probably would have done had she been a paranolae, as it has been asserted she was, nor did she once refer to malicious animal magneonce refer to malicious animal magnetism, which I understand was alleged to be an evidence the restate of mind. In person she was neat and clean, and I am informed is most careful about the condition of her house, quickly noting changes that may be made in the arrangement of the furniture, books, or decoration; that she gives her own orders, manages her own servants, and suggests the selection of food."

"We who personally know Mrs. Eddy alone realize the striking goodness of her nature, the deep spirituality of her life, and her untiring love for mankind; and it is a matter of great satisfaction to us that she has triumphed so signally in this unjust suit."

It would be manifestly unfair to the narshal to announce of just what his attraction consists. Far better were it o announce the happy ending of the "ten-twent-thirt" drama before the curtain rises, but the marshal promises to chance to get in a word. He had stolen nothing, he said, but while the pattern maker had been in the hospital moved his possessions to the cellar, as he had use for the room and the complainant owed him for six weeks' board.

deliver the goods—as usual. It will be recalled that Collins had spirations some weeks ago to go upon the vaudeville stage at Glen Echo in a far-heralded "hold-up" act, but the town counsel forbade and the marshal lost the opportunity of appearing before the footlights at $75 a week-for one

Things have changed, however, the dull days have come and when Collins announced the lease of the "Lemon House, where you laugh until you grow faint," the town council had no objections. The marshal, by the way, has another specialty up his sleeve, having been declared the champion cake-walker of Glen Echo, at a recent contest.

He is entered in another contest for next Monday night, with the odds heavily in his favor.

Forgetful Mother Leaves Her Baby On a Texas Train

WEATHERFORD, Tex., Aug. 24.-Journeying alone through the world at the age of one month is the record of a Texas youngster, and his little journeys through life commenced under rather embarrassing circumstances for his mother. It seems that his mother, who is a young woman, owning up to twenty-three years, got off the train at Cisco and left the baby in the coach, evidently forgetting it. The youngster was well behaved, and only when he woke up to cry for his mother was attention attracted to him. The train was then speed ing toward Fort Worth. A number of the women and young ladies made friends with the bit of humanity and sought to cheer it up with fool ish, or baby, talk. They managed pretty well until Fort Worth was reached, where the conductor took charge of the youngster.

cited in Forth Worth and communicated with the authorities at Cisco. with the result that the mother was detained there, a charge of abandonment being made against her. The railway men at Fort Worth decided that the preper thing to do would be to send the youngster back to his mother, so the baby was placed on board a train that would pass Cisco, and got there safely.
